

CEC Chapter 99's Spring 2009 Schedule

All meetings will be held at Hamilton's Banquet Hall, 110 North East Street, Jacksonville.

Tuesday, February 10, 2009 --- 4:30 to 8:00 p.m.

"The Stress of Poverty and Its Impact on Children"

Presented by: Mary English, Director of the Early Years Program, Jacksonville District #117

Mary will discuss how poverty impacts children and what educators should understand in order to meet the needs of the children. Her presentations are poignant and very valuable for everyone.

Menu: Roast Turkey, sage dressing, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, & peas by Hamilton's with cookies by Pathway Stakeholders

Thursday, March 5, 2009 --- 4:30 to 8:00 p.m.

"Autism Inside out: Stories from a Personal Perspective"

Presented by: Marty Murphy, Autism Educational Consultant and Jacquie Mace, Consultant

Marty is an adult with Autism Spectrum Disorder who has a degree from the University of Arizona. She gives a unique, personal look into the world of autism. With amazing insight she shares the emotional influence of living with autism along with the many facets of how and why things affect her. With knowledge and humor, Marty delivers an energetic message, providing answers to and strategies for many of the challenges that parents and educators face.
